TAXATION

Last month the public debt of the United States increased $112,000,000. It now seems to be certain that the treasury will face deficits until our tax laws have been changed and the new laws have been in effect for about a year. On account of the prevailing business conditions the receipts from the income tax will be largely reduced at least for two or three years, and the receipts from the excess profits tax, which have been very large, will be very small. Aside from the passage of necessary appropriation bills it is probable that the present Congress will attempt to do little except to finish investigations and make reports on which the Attorney General of the next administration may base such prosecutions as may be warranted. It is to be feared that the League of Nations will come in for much useless discussion, and it is to be hoped that there will be much discussion concerning the taxation question which should, and probably will be considered to be, the most important problem presented for solution by the special session which will be necessary soon after the fourth of March. It seems to be generally admitted that some changes should be made in the income tax law, owing not altogether to imperfections in the law when passed, but especially to the changed business conditions now existing.

When it became necessary to raise large sums of money to pay the stupendous expenditures made for war purposes the excess profits tax clause was written into our revenue laws. This enactment met with general favor because it was believed that it would take all ill-gotten gains, wherever found, and thus put a stop to profiteering.

The purpose of the law was excellent. Its administration was scandalous. Greedy and unscrupulous individuals and corporations robbed consumers and were robbed in turn by the excess profits law. The people have had more than enough of this sort of indirect taxation. The excess profits law must be differently administered or it must be erased from our statutes. We must have burdensome taxation in some form for a long time and, as far as humanly possible, the burden should be equitably allotted. A committee of the Business Men's National Tax Association has made a careful and extensive study to ascertain what changes should be made in our revenue laws relating to excess profits taxes, stamp taxes, excise and all other forms of special taxes. This committee has reported in favor of a sales tax to take the place of all the above mentioned taxes. It is estimated that a tax of one per cent from gross sales would yield three billion dollars annually. It is confidently asserted that the sales tax will bear equitably upon consumers and will be vastly more satisfactory to business men, professional men, working men and to almost everybody else. The committee favors some changes in the income tax clause of the revenue act, applicable to persons who have small incomes. The recommendations of the tax committee will be presented to Congress. A sales tax law is a proposition which directly affects both the buyer and the seller. It should be weighed and measured before it is adopted.

The United States Geological Survey tells us that a certain coal field in Montana contains about five billion tons of coal. This is good news for the people who live in Montana, but is of little interest to the people of Maine. After the cold barons of Montana, the railroads and the wholesalers have taken the usual rake off, Montana coal will cost our retailers fifty dollars a ton. The trail of the profiteer is well marked from the unmined coal to the retailer and in some instances even to the bins of the consumers. Special committees have "probed," associations of coal barons and wholesalers have each held "consultations" and the Attorney General of the United States has "taken steps." The alleged purpose of these self proclaimed reformers has been to protect the consumer to the extent of enabling him to get his coal at a fair price. The consumer believes that the price of coal has been boosted without justification. He is thoroughly disgusted with promises, verbiage and investigations which stop short of fixing guilt upon the guilty, and administering adequate punishment to the offenders. A U. S. Senate committee is now in session investigating the coal scandal. Testimony has been given which shows that New England purchasers of anthracite coal have been robbed to the extent of $17,000,000 between the coal veins and the retailers who have to pass payment of the graft along to the consumer. Let us hope that the Senate committee will turn its findings over to the department of justice and will see that, next year, our people will not be compelled to purchase graft and coal on a 50-50 basis.

During the first nine months of this year more than 122,000,000 yards of various cotton cloths produced in foreign countries, were brought to the United States. During the same months of last year only 22,000,000 yards were imported. In Belgium the highest wages paid to spinners (men) is 28 cents an hour and the highest wages paid to women is 16 cents an hour. The average wage paid to cotton mill operatives is less than 20 cents an hour to adults and less than half that sum to children. In the cotton mills in Japan the labor cost is less than half that of Belgium. Mr. Gompers tells us that the battle against a reduction of wages in this country will be a fight to a finish. Mr. Gompers is leading a forlorn hope. For five years this country has been wonderfully prosperous. In most of our industries the advance in wages has kept step with the advance in commodities till the pace exceeded the highest hopes of the labor leaders of 1914 or even 1916. The country can stand the pace no longer. The prices of everything which labor produces are receding and neither Mr. Gompers nor anybody else can prevent a lower price for labor.

William D. Hayward is a well known leader of the I. W. W. He was arrested and sentenced to prison for violation of the espionage act. Why he was not put in prison and kept there we cannot state. A few days ago he made a public speech in Washington, D. C., in which he praised the Russian Soviet government and hoped the United States would follow its example. He called on American workers to open the prison doors before they themselves were imprisoned. "Freedom of speech" does not license treason. Hayward, himself, is not of much importance, but the fact that he had a thousand listeners most of whom were in full sympathy with him signifies that he, and the propaganda which he promulgates, are endorsed by more than a million rabid and dangerous enemies of law and order.

Five hundred Armenian women, employed by the American Red Cross, have built 100 miles of stone roads in Mesopotamia and reconstructed several steel bridges within the past four months to facilitate transportation of Red Cross supplies.—Commercial and Financial World.

Our State Highway Commission has an abundance of road experts and plenty of machinery. A few hundred Armenian women should be added to its equipment as soon as possible.

LOBSTERS

In speaking of changed conditions in the fishing on the Kennebec river, Game Warden H. L. Spinney of Bath remarked recently that he recalls when the first set of lobster traps was placed along the near coast by a Southport fisherman and then it was possible to go down to a pool near the home of his maternal grandfather, Richard Marr, on Salter's Island and gaff 150 good sized lobsters. They were brought up the Kennebec and three cents apiece was considered a fair price. The going price in the Bath market this week is 60 cents a pound. The crustaceans were boiled in those days 100 at a time. The late Melvin Spinney of Small Point is said to have put the second set of lobster traps at Small Point.—Kennebec Journal.

We remember seeing, more than sixty years ago, a lobster which Capt. James Miller caught at low tide, entangled in sea weed under his wharf. We were told by Capt. Miller that this lobster weighed 18 pounds. We remember too that the steamboat agent on duty at that time on this wharf had several lobster traps in favorable positions at the sides of the wharf and we know he caught lobster, because one day when he was busy elsewhere we pulled up one trap and there were two lobsters in it. Further your deponent saith not.

TROY.

Thomas Sanborn and family recently moved to the Center.

Oral Cuddy and family have moved to Plymouth.

Ira Fernald and family are with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fernald, for the winter.

Frank Thompson and family have moved to the home of Otis Rhoads who is in poor health and needed help and care.

Mrs. E. E. Bagley who has been spending a week with her sister, Mrs. T. W. Hawes, has returned to her home in Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Powell and daughter have given up their home and work in Waterville and for the present are stopping with relatives in Troy.

Mrs. Myra Terrill, whose home was recently destroyed by fire, is living in the "Dr. Barker house" at Rogers Corner, which is near the home of her childhood.

While writing this, Monday morning, Dec. 6, the crows are calling. The out of doors looks like April. We wish the winter was gone and spring had really come.

The schools in town closed last week. Miss Edith Estes has closed her school in Burnham Dec. 3rd. The Center school gave a box social and entertainment at the schoolhouse Friday evening. More than thirteen dollars was realized. The program consisted of songs by the school, dialogues and recitations. A vocal solo was much enjoyed, by little Miss Erma Roundy.

YOUR RHEUMATISM

Remove Its Cause by Purifying Your Blood.

One of the most important duties of your system is to burn up certain substances no longer of use in your body. One is uric acid, now generally held to be the cause of rheumatism. It inflames the joints, stiffens the muscles, causes pains, aches, and lameness.

The system is found to dispose of this troublesome substance, and rheumatism is permanently relieved, by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the one true blood purifier. It is aided in many cases by Hood's Pills, which in small doses are a gentle laxative, in larger doses an active cathartic. A grand treatment, economical and effective.

GEORGE H. CLARK

George Henry Clark, passed away of heart trouble very peacefully at his home on Moody Mt. in Searsmont, Monday morning, Dec. 6. He was the son of Jotham S. and Sarah (Hire) Clark, and was born in Searsmont July 15, 1858. He has been a life long resident of that town, where his genial disposition and noble Christian character has won for him many friends. He was converted in a camp meeting at Northport, when a young man, united with the Methodist Church in Searsmont, and has always been a loyal member. All through his life he conducted many religious services in Searsmont and surrounding towns. He also preached many funeral sermons. He leaves to mourn for their loss a son, Walter, with whom he made his home, three daughters, Mrs. Etta Peavey of Lincolnville, Mrs. Abbie Greenlaw and Mrs. Ada Curtis of Belfast; also a foster son Edwin C. Clark of Berkeley Cal., and seven grandchildren. Funeral services were held at his home Dec. 8th at 1 p. m. Rev. Emma Harrison, speaking words of comfort to the bereaved relatives and friends. The floral tribute was abundant and beautiful. The bearers were Henry Peavey, George Alexander, Walter Clark and George Curtis. Interment was in his family lot on Moody Mt.

ORRA E. RICHARDS

Orra E. Richards died very suddenly at his home in East Belfast last Saturday afternoon. He was born in Belfast, Nov. 21, 1865, the son of S. K. and Augusta B. (Flagg) Richards and his life was spent in East Belfast, where he was employed in the Sherman leather mill. Nov. 22, 1894, he married Annie L. Robbins, who with their sons Melvin Harold and Ralph Herbert, survives him, also his father and brother, F. Herbert Richards of East Belfast. The funeral was held at his late home Monday at 2 p. m., Rev. William Vaughan of the Mason Mills church officiating.

Colonial Theatre

The City of Masks and adaptation of George Barr McCutcheon's popular novel of the same name will be the feature attraction at the Colonial today. This is a story dealing with a phase of New York life little known to the outside world.

Friday, the play you have all been waiting for, Will Rogers in "Jubilo." Many will remember this great story written by Ben Ames Williams which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post. Goldwyn quickly secured the screen rights, because he had a star that would fit the part like a glove. Will Rogers has the title role in Jubilo and is a photoplay that will grip you with its charm.

Edith Roberts, the piquant Universal star, will appear Saturday in her newest feature Alias Miss Dodd. In this offering the star plays the role of an adventurous romantic girl—but why say more.

Monday, Ethel Clayton is the star in Crooked Streets, a story of where east meets west. Follow the adventures of Ethel Clayton in Shanghai, the Paris of the East.

Madge Kennedy is the star on Tuesday in Dollars and Sense. It is a story of the lonely life of a down and out chorus girl made brighter by the wonderful soul of a baker boy. She was a drop-a-quarter-in-the-gas-meter struggler, until she met the put-a-dollar-in-the-biscuit-lover, and then—laughter, a wee tear, a wonderful romance.

Wednesday, Buck Jones in the Square Shooter. Just a plain ordinary man, but lordy how he can rope and ride and shoot, when love is in his heart and purpose in his eyes. Its refreshing to announce a star that is a star.

Mrs. Ruth N. Thompson of New York, county secretary of the Northeastern Field Committee of the National Board of Y. W. C. A., now connected with the Children's European relief committee in Portland, has been in Belfast several days to organize a committee. Several interested in the drive met at the home of Mrs. Charles M. Craig Sunday afternoon.

When Rev. William Vaughan was made chairman and Ralph A. Bramhall treasurer. Mrs. Alice C. Bramhall, Mrs. O. E. Frost and Miss Grace H. Hall are members of the committee.

The "Girls Home" has at present a family of 19 girls to care for. Seven of them had measles in November, and some were still ill on Thanksgiving Day. Their share of the Thanksgiving candy sent by Mrs. E. M. Glidden, and of the various dainties sent by the Madisses Club of Brunswick was laid aside to be enjoyed later. On the last Sunday of the month a beautiful chicken dinner was kindly provided by a group of our business people under the lead of Mr. E. M. Glidden. The children were convalescent then and every one was able to have at least a taste of the good things; the board of directors, as well as the girls, appreciated the thoughtful gift. Recent contributions of cash have come from Miss Anne C. Crosby, Miss Louise Hazeltine, Miss C. C. Cutter and from Mrs. J. W. Manson and Mrs. Mary McGiverty of Pittsfield. The Camp Fire girls of Searsport, under charge of Mrs. Duncan, have renovated the room which is in their care. The North Church has charge of the Christmas tree this year; the children are practicing Christmas songs and recitations for that occasion. The Minnetoska Club has given the time at recent meetings to making Christmas tree decorations and candy and pop corn bags for the tree at the Home.

Their share of the Thanksgiving candy sent by Mrs. E. M. Glidden, and of the various dainties sent by the Madisses Club of Brunswick was laid aside to be enjoyed later. On the last Sunday of the month a beautiful chicken dinner was kindly provided by a group of our business people under the lead of Mr. E. M. Glidden. The children were convalescent then and every one was able to have at least a taste of the good things; the board of directors, as well as the girls, appreciated the thoughtful gift. Recent contributions of cash have come from Miss Anne C. Crosby, Miss Louise Hazeltine, Miss C. C. Cutter and from Mrs. J. W. Manson and Mrs. Mary McGiverty of Pittsfield. The Camp Fire girls of Searsport, under charge of Mrs. Duncan, have renovated the room which is in their care. The North Church has charge of the Christmas tree this year; the children are practicing Christmas songs and recitations for that occasion. The Minnetoska Club has given the time at recent meetings to making Christmas tree decorations and candy and pop corn bags for the tree at the Home.

Mrs. Ruth N. Thompson of New York, county secretary of the Northeastern Field Committee of the National Board of Y. W. C. A., now connected with the Children's European relief committee in Portland, has been in Belfast several days to organize a committee. Several interested in the drive met at the home of Mrs. Charles M. Craig Sunday afternoon.

When Rev. William Vaughan was made chairman and Ralph A. Bramhall treasurer. Mrs. Alice C. Bramhall, Mrs. O. E. Frost and Miss Grace H. Hall are members of the committee.

The "Girls Home" has at present a family of 19 girls to care for. Seven of them had measles in November, and some were still ill on Thanksgiving Day. Their share of the Thanksgiving candy sent by Mrs. E. M. Glidden, and of the various dainties sent by the Madisses Club of Brunswick was laid aside to be enjoyed later. Miss Mary Forbes is confined to her home with the fracture of her left leg.

Orrin J. Dickey has been appointed a mail clerk on the Belfast and Burnham branch of the Maine Central Railroad for the Christmas holidays. Mr. Dickey has served in that capacity for a number of years.

The Sagadahoc Towing Co's barge No. One will complete this week the season's work of bringing pulp wood to the Pelepon Co. from the Maine Central Railroad up at the M. C. R. Co's wharf for the winter. Capt. Harry W. Calhoun, his wife and children, Ronald and Lucile of St. Martins, N. B., will spend the season in her here.

George C. Lower and party, who left here in November for an auto trip to Miami, Fla., have sent several post cards en route describing the weather, etc. They evidently encountered the same overcast skies and dull days prevailing here. They stopped at Laurel, Md., spent several hours at Washington, D. C. At Wilmington, Del., they spent a day in the garage, and after repairs took three days to cover the 250 miles to Richmond. They also stopped at St. Petersburg and Jacksonville.

P. R. Werner of New York City has arrived here to act as construction engineer at the International Radio Telegraph Company grounds on Congress street, succeeding Edward G. Gage, who has been here for some weeks and has been transferred to New York. Mr. Werner has been for some months located at their station at Cape May. With Mrs. Werner they are making their headquarters at the Windsor Hotel. The riggers who have been here some weeks setting the masts have completed their work and left Saturday for New York.

The Baptist Sewing Circle held its annual meeting last Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. B. L. Robertson and elected the following officers and committees: Executive committee, Mrs. Gerald W. Howard, Mrs. William Holt and Mrs. William F. Stevens; treasurer, Mrs. Fred L. Howard; secretary, Mrs. George C. Sauer; work committee, Mrs. J. H. Morris, Mrs. Herbert S. Morse and Mrs. Fred M. Dutch; nominating, Mrs. Charles E. Rhoades and Mrs. L. J. Robbins. The circle has 36 voting members. During the year they have given $400 to the church treasury, $20 to the missionary treasury and expended $65 for other things. The total amount of money raised during the year was $618.26.

An interesting game of basketball was played in the Armory last Thursday evening between the Belfast High and the Brooks High schools. The visitors had a lead of 15 to 8 at the close of the second period, but the home team won out by the score of 30 to 19. Principal Harry A. Foster has been coaching more than the regular life and in the game Thursday night Karl H. Snalley, who starred for Belfast High, belonged to the class of 1920, while Hillard Buzzell who also played, was on the last year's team. Granville Hoffses was a substitute last season. Buzzell was injured in the recent game when he parted a ligament and also injured a vein in his right arm. The line up was as follows:

BELFAST (30)
Durham, 41, 3
Snalley, 11, 5
Bowen, 11, 3
Hoffses, 11, 3
Horne, 11, 3

BEAUTIFUL BUT DESTRUCTIVE SNOW. One of the most beautiful snow storms for many winters arrived Friday evening and continued into the day Saturday. The flakes were large and feathery floating in the air as if to find lodging on trees, shrubs and wires. At daylight Saturday the scene was simply beautiful, but it lost some of its charms when the weight of snow began to break limbs, split old trees and sever live electric wires. The breaking wires furnished fireworks for the scene and the falling branches had a sufficient rumble to resemble thunder for the timid. Trees were destroyed in every direction. About a third of the handsome and symmetrical silver poplar in the rear of the Heal place at the corner of Court and Franklin came down. Half of one of the branching old elms in front of 5 Court street found a lodging on the lawn. One of the oldest shade trees in the city in front of the Woodcock residence on Church street divided, falling over the house and also over the Frost house adjoining. One of the beautiful shade trees in front of the Bradbury residence on Northport avenue was destroyed. Others reported injured or destroyed were in front of the Methodist church on Miller street, and another near the W. W. Bazo residence on Waldo Avenue. Supt. Russell G. Carter and a crew from the Penobscot Bay Electric Co., began at 3.45 a. m. Saturday to repair damages to their wires caused by falling limbs, snow-slides, etc. The repair crew from the telephone office was kept busy, particularly on the outlying districts. The Western Union service was cut off some time by a break in their wires.

COMPLETE CURE OF INDIGESTION

Box of "FRUIT-A-TIVES" or
"Fruit-A-Tive Tablets" Brought Relief

WILLIAM GALE SHEPHERD

Mr. William Gale Shepherd, of Chatham, Columbia Co., N. Y., was bothered with Constipation, Indigestion and Indigestion for many years; and tried all kinds of medicine with no relief.

As he said I would have a dull, heavy feeling in the pit of my stomach, generally about three or four times a day after eating.

After advertising in the "Troy Times" "Fruit-A-Tives" and sent to R. W. Shepherd's drug store in Chatham and bought two boxes. Before I had finished one box, I was relieved and now have no more trouble. I can eat anything I desire.

I would advise anyone in the same predicament as I was, to take "Fruit-A-Tives," as God send, and I would like to submit "Fruit-A-Tives" in the name of "Fruit-A-Tives".

WILLIAM GALE SHEPHERD,
Chatham, Columbia Co., N. Y.

STOCKTON SPRINGS

Richard Goodere was a recent week-end visitor in town.

Miss Ethel Fraser has gone to Bangor to enter the establishment of Frances for the holidays.

Mrs. Estelle Young of Winterport arrived recently for an indefinite stay with Mrs. Angie L. Mudgett.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Morrison have been making a visit at the home of the former's parents in Canaan.

Capt. and Mrs. Elden S. Shute went to Prospect recently to pass the week-end at the home of their son, Eugene Shute, where their newest grandson is flourishing.

Bank examiner A. H. Nichols and his assistant, Mr. Stinson, have been in town for a short time, making a regular examination of the books of the local trust company.

Arthur Colcord is recovering from an attack of blood poisoning in his hand, which has been making life interesting for him since his return from Newcastle just before Thanksgiving.

Miss Ruth Merrithew is making a visit in Massachusetts, her place in the telephone exchange being supplied by Mrs. Edmund J. Littlefield during her vacation, working opposite Mrs. Evelyn C. Shute.

Capt. Will Harriman, Chester L. Pascal and John J. Wardwell were at the Stockton Yard recently, making a trip of inspection to the big schooner Alcaeus Hooper, which will go overboard Christmas day or thereabouts.

M. R. LaFurley is making extensive changes and renovations to the top floor of his building, which he has leased for a period of years to Stockton Lodge, I. O. O. F. When completed the lodge will be in possession of rooms which leave little to be desired.

At the meeting of the Current Events Club at the home of Mrs. Alvah C. Treat on Dec. 1st, Mrs. John H. Gerrish, a graduate nurse, gave a most instructive and entertaining address on home nursing which received close attention from her audience.

Earl R. Richards was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln A. Gardner while hustling into the job of packing his household goods for removal to Millinocket, where he has finally secured a desirable rent. Mrs. Richards and the children, now in Boston, will join him as soon as the goods arrive in their new home.

The many friends of William Cleaves will be glad to learn that he is recovering at the home of his brother Frank in Searsport, from the most unfortunate accident which befell him more than a week ago when he was knocked down by a light rig suddenly turning the corner by the home of the Misses Colcord, his nieces, where he was staying at the time. Aside from the shock to one of his years, he suffers from an injury to his arm, which was struck by a thill.

The report that A. P. Lane has accepted the chairmanship of the Transportation Directorate of the State Chamber of Commerce and Agricultural League is of more than passing interest to the people of this town toward whom Mr. Lane has always been particularly friendly. Coming here for the first time when he arranged for shipping paper from the big docks many years ago, he has made frequent trips to town and could always be reckoned on to lend a helping hand. An ardent advocate of water transportation, there is little doubt of his effecting further shipments of Great Northern products via this terminal when conditions and circumstances permit.

SEARSPORT.

Ernest Haenseler of Deer Isle arrived in town recently to spend the winter.

Mrs. N. F. Gilkey and Mrs. Harold Cook spent Thursday in Bangor on a shopping trip.

Maynard Robbins is very ill with measles at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman S. Conary returned Thursday from a two weeks' visit with relatives in Haverhill and Springfield, Mass.

Mrs. Fred B. Smith returned Thursday from Belfast, where she has been for three weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Harold Coombs.

Miss Emma Field who was called to town by the illness and death of her sister, Mrs. A. H. Lorimer, has returned to her home in Boston.

Miss Leona Innes has returned to her duties as teacher in Gorakank, after spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Innes.

Miss Florence Colcord arrived Thursday from Milwaukee, Wis., where she spent a month as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer I. Stevens.

Herbert G. Partridge left last week for Florida. Mr. Partridge is recovering from a severe attack of pleurisy, and will spend the remainder of the winter in the South.

Steamer Ripogeous finished discharging coal for the Great Northern Paper

Co. and sailed Thursday for Norfolk, Va. Steamer Ruth sailed for Norfolk Friday and returned Monday with coal for the Great Northern. Barge Exeter is also due.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will hold their annual before-Christmas sale at the vestry on Thursday afternoon. An unusually attractive line of articles will be offered for sale, and this will be an excellent opportunity to purchase Christmas gifts.

Rev. Harold Le May of South Gardiner has accepted the call to become pastor of the First and Second Congregational churches in Park and Searsport, and will arrive about Dec. 21st, with Mrs. Le May and their small child. His first sermon as pastor here will be preached on Sunday morning, Dec. 26th.

Mrs. S. C. Pattee of Belfast held her opening dancing lesson on Thursday evening at G. A. R. hall. The class numbers forty-four pupils in all and will be divided into two classes, one for adults and one for children, the children's class to be held earlier in the evening, and the adult class to be followed by a general dancing assembly.

Mrs. Evie Ford, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. Silas Buck, in Park, met with a painful accident Saturday. She stepped out to get the mail from the R. F. D. box, and slipping on the icy steps, fell, sustaining a fracture of her left wrist. She also injured her hip and was badly shaken up. She was attended by Dr. S. L. Fairchild of Searsport and is comfortable.

Miss Marjorie Towers was given a surprise party on Tuesday evening at her home in Church St., the occasion being her 17th birthday anniversary. A pleasant evening was spent with games and music; and cake, fancy cookies and hot chocolate were served. Those present included the Misses Annie D. and Frances Rogers, Frances Bailey, Isabelle Closson, Alice Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Towers, Pauline and Louie Towers, Mrs. P. L. Gilkey, Henry Rogers and Charles Rogers Jr.

The members of the White Elephant Auction Club were pleasantly entertained on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. C. N. Meyers, at her home in West Main St. Eleven guests were present, and the prizes went to Mrs. A. B. Pendleton, whose high score entitled her to the first, a bag of fine potatoes, with an accompanying verse, and to Mrs. Harold Cook, who received the consolation, a pack of cards. The following guests were present: Mrs. A. B. Pendleton, Mrs. Wm. Goodell, Mrs. J. W. Black, Mrs. Frank Curtis, Mrs. John Frame, Mrs. N. F. Gilkey, Mrs. Fred Burr, Mrs. Harold Cook, Mrs. A. S. Trundy, Miss Sally Dow, little Loessita Curtis and Frederick Jerome.

Merle R. Whitcomb lost one of stable horses early Tuesday evening, which was killed on account of having a leg broken. A young man by the name of Thomas hired the team to go to Citypoint and when opposite the Court House on High street was run down by Stewart Brackett of Searsport in an auto. The horse was valued at $125.

WINTERPORT

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thompson of Pierce, Idaho, are the guests of his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ross A. Thompson.

The town, village and high schools will close Dec. 17, with the exception of the Martin school, which closes Dec. 24. Schools will reopen Jan. 3, with the exception of the Whittier school, which will begin Dec. 20, after an enforced vacation owing to an epidemic of measles.

The annual fair, sale and supper held at I. O. F. banquet hall Thursday afternoon by the Burr Club and ladies of Mizpah Rebekah Lodge, was a pleasant social occasion and highly successful financially. Mrs. Alice Arey, president of the club, and her efficient committee are to be congratulated on the success of the event.

At the regular meeting of Cushing Chapter, O. E. S., Wednesday night Past Matron, Mrs. Orrie E. Moody, presided. The degree was conferred on Mrs. Grace Crockett and Mrs. Elsie Hall. The following officers were elected: W. M., Elsie A. Barrows; W. P., C. L. Barrows; A. M., Clara A. Cole; sec., Annie R. Fernald; treas., Orrie E. Moody; con., Bessie Crockett; associate con., Flora Cheney; finance committee, Elizabeth R. Eldridge; Nettie D. Grant and Leslie W. Mayo. A supper was served after the meeting.

A quiet wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer H. Clements Thursday morning, when Miss Kathleen Dorothy McCaffrey was united in marriage to William Joseph Adlington, D. D. S., by Rev. C. A. Purdy. The happy couple left immediately for Portland, where they will reside. Mrs. Adlington came here two years ago and was a senior in the high school. Dr. Adlington has been in dental practice for several years and served in that capacity in the World War. He was recently appointed District Dental Examiner with headquarters in Portland.

The entertainment given at Union Hall Tuesday evening by the pupils of the grammar school, Carroll L. Young, teacher, was a pleasant affair and each number of the program reflected credit on teacher and pupil. The singing by the two schools, grammar and intermediate, was very pleasing and showed a marked improvement under the instruction of Miss Jessie D. Baker, music teacher in the schools. The program consisted of solos, duets and selections by the schools, recitations, compositions and piano solos by Miss Clara Knowles. Miss Baker was accompanist. A spelling match with Kenneth Foley and Joseph Eldridge was participated in by all ages of spellers, with the honors to the older grays. A box social was followed by dancing.

Mrs. Geo. A. Cole, chairman for selling Christmas seals, has made arrangements with the following stores where they may be procured: Community store, A. W. Shaw, Page & Bryer, drug store, Treat & Lowe, E. B. Nealley, C. R. Hill, C. C. Moody, C. R. Lougee, F. W. Haley, all of the village; W. T. Hall, West Winterport; A. P. Perkins, Ellingwoods Corner; S. A. Newey, Bald Hill Cove; Farmers Union. Mrs. G. A. Cole, Mrs. Luther Butterfield and Mrs. F. T. Binsay will canvass their respective districts. It is hoped that a liberal response will be made and thus prove that we do care to have the white plague in the State of Maine stamped out. "How Much Do You Care?"

The most enjoyable event that has taken place in fraternal circles for some time was the observance of ladies' night by Howard Lodge, F. & A. M., last Thursday evening. Nearly one hundred were present. An excellent program was presented by local talent with the able assistance of Frankfort. Batchelder's orchestra, consisting of the following, furnished music: Allie Batchelder, violin; Jennie Batchelder, piano; C. C. Moody, trombone; G. W. Cheney, cornet; C. L. Barrows, drums. The following program was given: Selection, orchestra; address of welcome, Raymond Cole; voca. solo, Miss Jennie Batchelder; reading, W. H. Lord; reading, Mr. Glidden; instrumental duet, C. C. Moody, W. E. Parker, Mrs. C. C. Moody, accompanist; reading, G. W. Cheney; vocal solo, Joshua Treat, Jr.; march played by orchestra during which all formed on the floor by couples and marched to the banquet hall, where a delicious oyster stew was served by W. R. Fernald, chief cook, and an able corps of assistants, Elden Danielson, William Hill, James A. Carleton, C. A. Campbell, James Bowden and others. After recess there were several selections by the orchestra and pleasing readings by Mr. Glidden. It was also announced that the occasion was being held on the birthday anniversary of one of the past worshipful masters of the lodge, F. N. Perry.

The relatives and friends here of George H. Norris of Ayer, Mass., were deeply grieved to learn of his accidental death Sunday night, Dec. 5th, when the engine and three forward cars on the freight train of which he was fireman, dropped into a hole caused by a washout at Wendall dam on Millers River, Orange, Mass. He was a native of Massachusetts, but his home was in this town with Mr. and Mrs. George W. Shaw when a boy. He had been engaged in railroad for several years. He was a member of Garfield Lodge, I. O. O. F. of this town, and was an attendant of the lodge in Ayer, Mass., where he had resided several years. His wife was Miss Carrie Knowles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Knowles. His remains were not recovered from the wreck until late the following Wednesday afternoon after the accident occurred. Funeral services were held at his residence in Ayer Friday afternoon. His body arrived here Saturday morning for interment in the Twining cemetery. The impressive rites of the I. O. O. F. burial service were solemnized at the grave by Garfield Lodge which attended in a body. The services were also attended by his relatives and old friends in the neighborhood. Leslie Sparrow of Hampden was funeral director. Much sympathy is felt for his sorrowing relatives, a wife, mother and two small children, who were thus suddenly bereft of a devoted husband, son and father.

TWO NINETEEN

For Men's and Women's Beautiful Wigwam House Slippers. Right when you need them for Xmas. Easily worth a third more.

This may be a "Merry Xmas" for most people, but for those who have big merchandise bills to meet it's a different story. This was the case of one of the best makers of Moccasin House Slippers in the State. We had plenty of Slippers, but the offer this manufacturer made to us over the phone the other morning WAS ACTUALLY CHEAPER THAN PRE-WAR PRICES. We bought about 200 pairs and have made one uniform price for the men and women—two nineteen.

Remember these are not odd lots, or undesirable styles, but the very best makes this man produces. For instance: most of them are handsomely trimmed with beads which you know means painstaking hand work. We want every thinking person who reads this advertisement to consider what this offer means—one of the most acceptable Xmas gifts at a price made possible only by a manufacturer's urgent need of cash.

No. 187. Men's Black Kid Everett, $2.95

HAVE YOU HAD A GOOD PAIR OF SLIPPERS since the war? Not unless you have paid a fabulous price. Here's another example of another misfortune. If everything had worked right these Men's Slippers would have sold for $4 to $5. But cash was needed—we furnished it. Result: you can buy these very best kind of slippers for two ninety-five. They are made from very soft extra fine kid skins (not sheepskins) flexible, easy bending old-fashioned, good wearing soles. The sort of slippers "you used to buy and haven't seen since."

MURKILL.

Mildred Morrill of Belmont spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. James Mears.

Mrs. Annie L. Simmons is passing the winter with her daughter, Mrs. C. B. Allen, in Melrose, Mass.

Charles Woods recently passed a few days in Lawrence, Mass., called there by the death of his aunt, Mrs. Henry Ham.

Mrs. Linda Hatch, who has been on the sick list for a few weeks is improving, and was carried to Belfast Sunday, where she will remain this winter with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Jackson.

Mrs. Ernest Bowen wishes to express through the Morrill locals her thanks and appreciation for the shower of post cards received last week from Morrill Sunday school and other friends.

Honesty Grange held election of officers at their last meeting, electing James Woodbury, M.; Mrs. James Mears, Lect.; Mrs. George Dow, Secy. They start out with a good corps of officers and hold interesting meetings every Wednesday evening.

The Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. Mary

Brown at the home of John Rowe Thursday with 22 ladies present. A treat of assorted cake, ice cream and coffee was served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Fred Jackson, Thursday, afternoon. Dr. and Mrs. Bryant Moulton and daughter Elizabeth from Portland recently moved into town and have resided at Mrs. Brown's house, telephone 24-14. We have been accustomed for many years to look upon our resident doctor not only as a physician, but as a loved and trusted friend, and we are ready to receive our new doctor with a large degree of friendliness and wish God speed in his work.
